YALE MEN OUT.

Incidents of the Exercise-Pool
Time.

NEW-YORK, June 27.—Yale out during the afternoon on the Thames on Lariat's launch (Hiber) which will be used during the re-by the referee. Lariat dined with ew.

Yale men are more used to the which are now held instead of ing. The weather was fine and was no wind. On shore there groups of brightly dressed horse-and runners who followed the on the towpath. Yale went out the island.

first half of the course was coved by 3:32. The stroke for the first was 39, and it was then dropped "Bob" Cook called out to the and the stroke was raised to 35.
Cook repeatedly shouted, "Hit it!"
The time made was not very good, when the conditions which prevailed are taken into consideration.

Captain Treadway reports that the men are all well. They have regained the weights lost on Monday and like the tent boatmen, as they are able to meet there more members of the other crew than they could in the more private boathouse at first set apart for their use.

SIGNED ARTICLES.

Corbett and Sharkey Are Open For Bids
For a Mill.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—James J.
Corbett and Thomas Sharkey signed articles for a fight to a finish to take place within six months in the United States or Mexico, before the club or organization offering the best inducement.
The contest is for the world's championship and a side bet of $10,000, the winner to receive the $20,000 besides the prize to be offered by the club.
Marquis of Queensberry rules will govern the contest, and the referee is reminded by the articles that the rules prohibiting clinching and hugging are to be strictly enforced. Neither pugilist is to participate in any contest until after a fight is decided. Lynch, Sharkey's backer, who represented the club, objected to the prohibition of clinching, but Corbett insisted and after much wrangling it was finally agreed to by Lynch.

NEARLY A RIOT.

Cleveland Ball Players Become Enraged
at the Umpire.

LOUISVILLE, June 27.—The game between Louisville and Cleveland was marked by constant wrangling by both teams over Umpire Weidman's decisions. With Louisville one run ahead in the ninth inning Barker knocked out a home run, tying the score. In the tenth inning the Clevelanders scored four runs on an error, a base on balls and two home runs. The home team then played for darkness and finally Umpire Weidman called the game. This so enraged the Cleveland players that several of them rushed at him and began to use him roughly. The spectators crowded on the field and for a time trouble was expected. The police dispersed the crowd. A crowd of small boys threw rocks at the spiders as they were leaving in their bus.

To Quell Insurrectionists.

LIMA, Peru, June 27.—All the staff of the minister of war, Colonel Ybarra, and also the officers and troops of the maritime expedition, will take transports on the ship Constitution by way of the Straits of Magellan. They are now on board and it is reported they leave for Para, Brazil. This expedition is designed to act against the insurrection under a monarch at Iquitos, on the headwaters of the Amazon.

Resignation of Rhodes and Others.

LONDON, June 27.—It is officially announced that the resignations of Cecil Rhodes, Alfred Beit and Dr. Rutherford Harris as directors of the British South Africa company have been accepted. The first named tendered his resignation some months ago as a result of the disclosures made regarding the raid into the Transvaal.

Destructive Blaze.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., June 27.— Fire broke out in the millinery store of Ann Dorton and burned Hoof's Opera House and other stores, shops and dwellings, causing a loss of $100,000, with but little insurance.

HAMILTON CLUB'S TROPHY.

It Has Been Designated as the Championship Emblem and Will Be Made Perpetual—List of Officers Elected.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The American Whist league has decided that the Hamilton club trophy shall be considered the championship emblem and shall be made perpetual. This was agreed to at Manhattan Beach. The league was so greatly pleased with the success of the present congress that it was determined that the next annual meeting would be held at that summer resort.
Officers for the year were elected.
Walter H. Barney was chosen president; H. A. Mandel, vice president; Bertram D. Krubben, recording secretary; Robert H. Weems, corresponding secretary, and Benjamin L. Williams, treasurer.

Dr. Joseph Neff was added to the board of appeals. Mr. Barney, despite the efforts of the members to persuade him, retired from the board, and George O. Dunn took his place. President Barney presented the retiring president, William Schwartz, with a gold badge.
In the Hamilton trophy the Hamilton of Philadelphia took the lead over St.
Paul and Baltimore took the lead over Newtown.

MRS. CRAVEN IN COURT.

Testifies That She Is the Widow of the Late James G. Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Mrs. Nettie R. Craven has at last revealed her relations with the late James G. Fair.
In the presence of a score of attorneys and a courtroom full of people, she told Judge Slack that she was the widow of the dead millionaire. The marriage was by contract, she swore, and took place on May 23, 1892, at 823 Sutter street, where Mrs. Craven was then living. The record of the ceremony, with Fair's signature attached, was in her possession, she said, and would be produced.

Like all previous developments in the famous will contest, few of the circumstances attending the marriage are known. Mystery surrounds the event itself. According to Mrs. Craven the contract nuptials were celebrated in the evening. The record of the affair was drawn by herself, at her husband's request, who feared it might be disagreeable to his children. Mrs. Craven remained silent concerning the ceremony.
Of the courtship and honeymoon she would not speak.

The revelation was made in connection with the two deeds recently filed by Mrs. Craven, in which the late senator is said to have transferred to her property worth $1,000,000.

STATE GAINS A POINT.

Oral Confession of Romulus Cottell Admitted as Evidence.

AKRON, O., June 27.—Upon the heels of Flora Stone's testimony that she recognized the voice of the murderer of her father and mother as that of Romulus Cottell, the state gained a great point in securing the admission of the oral confession of Cottell to the officers of the law as evidence. Attorney Voris, for the defense, consumed nearly the entire morning in arguing that it was involuntary and should be excluded, but Judge Kohler ruled it competent.

CORNELL WINS.

A Beautiful Race Between the College Crews.

POCONO, N. Y., June 27.—The Harvard-Cornell-Columbia-Pennsylvania four mile straightaway boat race on the Hudson was won by Cornell's eight in the phenomenal time of 19 minutes and 29 seconds, Harvard second, Pennsylvania third and Columbia fourth. Cornell won the freshman race two days ago, in which the order of finishing was strangely the same. The race was a hard one for two miles, but Cornell had it their own way. Harvard tried their old scheme of firing out Cornell at the start, but it failed. Cornell rowed a clean race and without a break of any kind. Pennsylvania splashed and rowed badly and Columbia, for some unknown reason, was not in the race after the first quarter mile.
Harvard rowed pluckily but was outclassed.

The conditions were favorable. The water was smooth, the wind undisturb-ing and the ebb tide in favor of very good time.

The four crews lined up for positions about 5:30 o'clock. There was a good deal of trouble, however. Just as the referee had asked the usual questions about getting ready, Captain Bullard of Harvard raised his hand and complained that Columbia's stake boat was below the line. Cornell and Pennsylvania agreed to this and the referee ordered it back. This took some moments, and then the crews were lined up again. To be sure that there should be no error or claim of unfairness he asked each crew separately, "Are you ready?" and got a favorable reply. The referee sent them off with the pistol.

All struck the water together, but Columbia only got a half stroke. Cornell and Harvard were both fully prepared and got the advantage of a long sweep.
Harvard began its old tactics of a quick stroke to tire its opponents, and for a while it seemed to work well.

All had started with a 40 stroke, which Harvard tempered down to 39 at the first quarter, while Cornell had come down to 19. Columbia seemed to have a leaden weight on its boat, and it long in the water as if it was not intending to try and keep with the others.

Pennsylvania was rowing 39 to the minute, but it was a ragged stroke that rocked the boat and a recovery that stopped it. Both Harvard and Cornell had settled down to work in a methodical way and both pulling a 38 stroke were working with a will. Harvard's boat poked its nose ahead of Cornell at the half mile and the rowers yelled with approbation. Then slowly, inch by inch, the Harvard boat crept by the Cornell boat until her stern just lapped the latter's nose.

It was noticeable that the Cornell men never changed their stroke, but worked steadily at 38 and 37 strokes, with good back work and beautiful, clean blade action, and as they neared the two mile mark this work was noticeable in its effect. Harvard's men had put all their hard work in their arms and legs and it was beginning to tell, for they could not get the stern of their boat away from Cornell's, and gradually Cornell, with their backs working from the sliding seat to the back of their necks and with a rhythmical motion that was beautiful to see, began to gain their lost ground. Harvard tried desperately to hold the lead, but as the two boats flashed by the two mile mark Cornell had shoved herself forward on even terms and was still going.

Getting into the last mile Cornell was still pulling a 37 stroke without a splash or a quaver, their boat fairly shooting along, while Harvard's men looked as if some of them would fall out of the boat. Cornell at the three and a half mile had increased her lead to about four boat lengths, and Pennsylvania was clearing up some of the water between them and Harvard in such a clipping manner that the crimson adherents feared for their crew's hold on second place. The last half mile was uncertain. Cornell crossed the line at the pace she had set at the start, a winner by five lengths over Harvard, in the record breaking time of 19 minutes and 29 seconds, and not a man in her boat showed distress. Pennsylvania crawled in at a good pace about four boat lengths behind Harvard, and Columbia paddled in at least 20 lengths in the rear.

Cornell's admirers are on anything but an even keel and her enemies are joining to a more or less degree in the general jubilation. Cornell's coach, Courtney, is supremely happy. A mob of "rooters," 800 strong, marched from the Nelson House to River villa, where where the Cornell crews have been living, and serenaded him far into the night.

The record breaking time of the race was in a measure due to the ebb tide that was quite effective, but it is believed that the timekeepers, unable to see any flag at the finish, have made an error. The watches in the presscar on the observation train made the time of Cornell between 19:54 and 20:04. No watch that can be found tallies with the official time. This does not detract from Cornell's victory as she has, with any of the time taken, broken the record.

Bicycle Races at Peoria.

PEORIA, Ill., June 27.—An immense crowd was present at Lakeview park to witness the bicycle races. The events were interesting, especially in the mile open professional which Sanger easily won over Cooper, Cardner, Allen and other fast men. They lowered the track record to 2:39, but H. C. Woods of Chicago failed in his attempt to lower the world's half mile record by a fifth of a second, covering the half in 58 1-5.

AFTER THE CASH.

Unsuccessful Attempt to Rob a Bank at Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, June 27.—The boldest attempt at bank robbery ever attempted on the Pacific coast has just come to light. The object of the attack was the heavy steel vault of the First National bank, one of the largest financial institutions of its kind in southern California, and to reach it the robbers dug a tunnel 102 feet in length, extending from a street adjoining the First National and running thence under the cellars of three other banks. This tunnel had progressed to a point beneath the vault when the police authorities were notified of its existence.

When the scheme was discovered the burglars had begun to remove the brick masonry supporting the steel vault. The work is believed to have been done by a gang of at least five or six persons, but only one suspect—James K. Stevens—has thus far been arrested.

WON'T GO TO CHICAGO.

Senator Gorman Thinks Free Silver Will Win in Democratic Convention.

BALTIMORE, June 27.—Senator A. P. Gorman will not go to Chicago. This is final.

"If I were to go to Chicago," said the senator, "what more can I do than will be done by the gentlemen who compose the delegation elected by the state? Nothing."

Senator Gorman can not be persuaded to alter his determination not to go to Chicago. It is doubtful if he will accept reappointment on the national committee. Certainly he will not be on the executive committee of that body. Mr. Gorman does not think there is any chance at this late hour to stem the free silver tide, which he believes will sweep over the Chicago convention.

When asked whom he thought the Democrats would nominate at Chicago he replied, "It looks like Boies."

It would be a nice thing for the Democratic National convention to nominate an Ohio man. Hon. James E. Campbell is a logical candidate, and a contest between him and McKinley as the representatives of the two great parties would be a memorable one.

No amount of Hanna scheming, or manufactured McKinley popularity, can divert the people from the money to the tariff issue.

The reason there has been no Republican enthusiasm since McKinley's nomination has just been discovered. It took so much money to nominate McKinley there was not enough left to purchase even red fire.

The Philadelphia Record says: "It was McKinley who wrote the Ohio platform for Free Silver, and it was McKinley, as it now appears, who wrote the St. Louis platform against Free Silver. The Major may have his shaky points, but it can't be denied that he is a clever all-around writer."

The Chicago Times-Herald is disgruntled generally. It says it cannot support either John B. Tanner or John P. Altgeld for Governor, and because of their candidacy it calls upon the Lord to save Illinois. And now it comes up with a vigorous kick because the socialists of Milwaukee want the Government to make beer checks legal tender. This excellent newspaper is hard to please.

A GENERAL MISFIT.

The protective plank of the Republican platform leaves McKinley looking almost as much of a misfit candidate as does the currency plank. "We are not pledged to any particular schedules." That is to say, do not fear, good people, that we shall break our leg a second time on the McKinley tariff. The platform is for a "reasonable application" of the protective principle; the awful inference lies on the surface that there have been unreasonable applications of it. "The country demands a right settlement, and then it wants rest. Business men say they want rest immediately, and dread nothing more than to be harried another four years by tariff agitation. Finally the platform explicitly throws over the sugar bounty, which was a great and essential feature of the McKinley tariff. In other words, it is for McKinley, but not for McKinleyism."—New York Evening Post.

CODY WILL BE HERE.

The Famous Buffalo Bill to Visit Lima Next Month.

Many inquiries have been made at this office since the first announcement of the coming of Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World, if Col. W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) himself will be present. It can be stated positively that he will take part in both afternoon and evening exhibitions. The further surprising statement may be made with equal positiveness, and that is, that the exhibitions will be absolutely exact duplicates, man for man and horse for horse, as they were at the World's Fair at Chicago. Those who saw them at Chicago may be inclined to doubt the possibility of transporting so vast an exhibition from city to city in a night, but it was done over 160 times last year throughout the Eastern States, and it was on time in every town and city without one single exception. With the even superior railroad facilities in the West it may be relied upon absolutely to be on time when it comes here on Thursday, July 9th.

PLEASANT AFFAIR.

The Second Annual Roll Call of the First Baptist Church.

The second annual roll call of the First Baptist church on Tanner street, held yesterday afternoon and evening, was a delightful and profitable occasion. The B. Y. P. U. had tastefully decorated the house. The ladies prepared abundant refreshments and all had a pleasant social and spiritual reunion.

The meeting began at 3 p. m. with an anthem by the choir, followed by scripture reading by the pastor, Rev. H. B. Bawden, after which the church clerk, M. W. Elliott, began the call of the roll. All who were present responded with a verse of scripture, or a word of testimony, and numbers of those who could not be present sent their responses to be given for them. There came handshakes and refreshments, many coming in to tea who were not able to attend in the afternoon. In the evening the choir rendered another appropriate anthem. Mrs. G. Day then read a sketch of the history of the church, which has been in existence 62 years doing a noble work for God and humanity, and the roll call was concluded. Some 175 in all, according to the report of the clerk, responded to the call of their names. Between the responses, stanzas of well-known, heart-stirring hymns were sung. After a few closing words by the pastor, the brethren and sisters separated with hearts full of gratitude for God's blessings in the past and full of hope and prayer for greater blessings in the future.

MAYOR OF ST. CHARLES.

One of the Thousands Whom

Paine's Celery Compound

HAS CURED.

The following long and explicit letter from Hon. A. A. Bennett tells its own story. Read it:

Mayor's Office,

City of St. Charles, Ill., March 4, 1896.

Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt. Gentlemen—I take much pleasure in being able to add my name to the great mass of testimony in praise of Paine's celery compound.

In November last I found myself much run down by overwork. For several weeks I had been obliged to work 18 hours daily out of the 24, and was, in consequence, in a state of physical and nervous exhaustion.

At the suggestion of a friend, I commenced the use of Paine's celery compound, with the result that my strength has steadily improved, and I find myself in far better health than I have known for years.

I believe, also, that it has enabled me to escape my periodical attack of rheumatism, as every season since that time, with the advent of the cold, damp weather, I have suffered severely from that disease in a chronic form. So far this winter, I have escaped without a single twinge of my old enemy.

Very sincerely yours,

A. A. BENNETT.

If we all led out-of-door lives, went to bed at sundown, and had no consuming cares nor hard work to bring down the health, there might not be the urgent necessity that now exists for taking this best of spring remedies—Paine's celery compound.

But as the great majority of lives are ordered—with too much work, too much anxiety, too little sleep, by the time winter is over, the drain on the nervous energy has become excessive, the nerves are in sad need of being strengthened, and the blood of being purified.

Paine's celery compound absolutely meets this great modern necessity.

Paine's celery compound will bring back nerve strength and replace poor, thin, pale blood with a ruddy, health-making stream. It is the one great, practical remedy advocated by all physicians.

It drives away that feeling of utter exhaustion that is so common in the spring, but no less dangerously significant because it is so common. It makes people well. It is a thousand times superior to all the ordinary sarsaparillas, purgatives and tonics ever made.

Paine's celery compound is the one real spring remedy known today that never fails to benefit. Get Paine's celery compound and only Paine's celery compound if you wish to be well.

WHEELMAN INJURED.

Archie Peck sustains a Broken Collar Bone at the L. C. C. Track.

Last evening Archie Peck, of the Buckeye Pipe Line offices, while exercising with L. C. C. racing men on the club track, sustained an injury that will prevent him from riding again for some time.

Archie was following Frank Placer on a sprint when one of his tires burst and he was thrown over the handle bars. He landed on his head and left shoulder and realized that he was severely injured, but did not know his collar bone was broken until after he was taken home and Dr. Collins summoned. The latter reduced the fracture, and Archie is getting along nicely.

Y. M. C. A. Lawn Services.

On account of rainy weather, the meeting for young men which was to have been held on the lawn adjoining J. R. Hughes' residence, 646 west Market street, last Sunday afternoon, will be held at that place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, unless rain prevents, in which case the meeting will be held in the association hall. Mr. R. J. Plate will address the gathering. Mr. W. S. Rice will lead the singing. Miss Leila Bowers will sing a solo, accompanied by two flutes and an organ, and Miss Lenora Evans will recite "The Resurrection." All men are invited to come and join in hearty gospel singing.

Your Boy Won't Live a Month.

So Mr. Gilman Brown, of 34 Mill street, South Gardner, Mass., was told by the doctors. His son had lung trouble, following typhoid malaria, and he spent three hundred and seventy-five dollars with doctors, who finally gave him up, saying: "Your boy won't live a month." He tried Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles restored him to health and enabled him to go to work a perfectly well man. He says he owes his present good health to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery, and knows it to be the best in the world for lung trouble. Trial bottles free at Metcalf's drug store.

A Pretty Idea.

At a luncheon to be given on a piazza that is the side of an immense room, the small tables, each seating six, are to stand under Japanese umbrellas covered with flowers and edged with delicate trailing vines. The idea is a pretty one for a dinner, when small electric lights should be concealed among the flowers in such a way as to soften the light very greatly.

Harry Barber is Knocked Out by Geno Williams.

OUT OUT WITH A FOUL.

Williams Called Barber a Liar and was Challenged to Fight—The Mill Pulled off the South Tanager Street Commons.

Harry Barber, a 17-year-old boy employed as a delivery boy for a south Main street grocery, was knocked out in a finish fight, about 8:15 o'clock last evening, by Geno Williams, a young colored boy who is about the same age. The fight was pulled off on the "commons" between south Tanager street and the L. E. & W. railroad, below the Tanner street bridge.

The setto was not a prize fight, but a go in earnest for blood, and Marquis of Queensbury rules were not very strictly observed, for Barber was knocked out by a foul blow.

The trouble between the two young fellows originated yesterday morning. A crowd of Lima boys recently played a game of base ball at Westminster, and yesterday Barber accused Williams of deserting his team and playing against it in the third inning. The colored boy called Barber a liar, and the latter requested him to wait a minute, until he tied his horse and he would settle the matter. Williams did not wait, but Barber met him at noon and the two arranged to meet at 8 o'clock last evening and settle the difficulty. They met as they had agreed and at once repaired to the "commons" mentioned, with their respective friends for their seconds, and Medad Talbot and several others for spectators.

The seconds would not permit the battle to begin until they had satisfied themselves that neither combatant was in possession of a pair of "knives" or any other weapon.

Without any unnecessary formalities the two fighters faced each other on the green sward and the mill opened. Barber, being the offended party and the challenger, seemed to consider it his duty to lead off, and he did so by making several vicious leads for his opponent's dark-skinned neck; but Williams avoided the blows skillfully and escaped punishment.

Barber made a faint with his left and then followed with his right for Williams' face. Williams, by a short side step, avoided the blow, and, catching his opponent by the back of the neck with his left, he held his head down and landed several short arm blows on his face with his right. Barber clutched his opponent and in the "break away" Williams landed heavily on Barber's wind with his knee. Barber fell and was unable to resume the fight before the expiration of ten seconds and Williams was declared the winner.

Williams received no punishment during the mill, but Barber was so badly knocked out that his friends had to assist him from the scene of battle.

Some one notified the police, but the fight was so brief that the principals and seconds had escaped before they arrived and no arrests have yet been made.

NO END YET.

Testimony Still Being Offered in the Mental Anguish Case—Court Adjourned Until Monday.

The Ogden anguish case is not progressing as rapidly as it was hoped it would. Already the case has occupied the attention of the court for five days, it having been called on last Monday afternoon.

A great number of witnesses have been examined this week and there has been no end of talk by the attorneys, on legal rulings. The plaintiff entered upon its rebuttal yesterday, but had not finished it to-day at noon, when the court adjourned until Monday morning. Neither side has definitely closed its case and even to-day new and direct testimony was offered.

The hearing of testimony will probably be concluded sometime Monday. The attorneys have asked for unlimited time to address the jury, but as yet Judge Sheets has not decided whether or not to grant the request. From the present outlook the case will be protracted longer than was the TIMES-DEMOCRAT-Ogden mental-anguish case.

WHY, GEORGE!

Why Did You Not Pay Your Dow Tax?

Notwithstanding the fact that Jackson Center is a dry town, the residents of that place who are so inclined have been able to get all the beer they wanted, until a few days ago, through a rather ingenious device. Last December a man named George Kah moved there from Lima and rented a room from John Elliott. He gave out that he was the representative of the Lima Brewing Company, and would take orders for that concern. Being simply a salesman, he claimed to be exempt from the Dow tax, but, to secure Elliott, whose property would be liable in case of legal proceedings on the part of the county, he deposited a certificate for $150 on the Lima Building and Loan Association in the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank. Kah commenced business December 12th, and did a flourishing trade. About two weeks ago the auditor sent for him to show cause why he should not pay the Dow tax. He told his story plausibly enough, but when closely questioned it appeared that he was not sticking to the truth. He was, therefore, told that he must pay up. He said he would be down again in a few days, but instead, packed up his goods and chattels and left for parts unknown. Wednesday suit was brought against him before W. C. Wyman, justice of the peace, for $169.80 of Dow tax due. The bank had previously refused to surrender the certificate, so an attachment was taken out and levied upon

LIMA CLUB ENTERTAINS.

Reception Given by Mrs. William H. Leete Yesterday—Mrs. James B. Townsend Entertains in Honor of Mrs. Morton of Columbus.

Mrs. William H. Leete in a most delightful manner entertained a large number of her friends yesterday afternoon at her home on north Baxter street. One hundred and seven invitations had been issued and very few regrets were received. The party was given in honor of her accomplished daughter, Miss Lenore. The parlors of the home were beautiful with their profuse decorations of smilax, ferns, palms, nasturtiums, sweet peas and roses. The afternoon was spent with cards and other amusements. The guests were received by Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Pugh and Mrs. Brown, of Ottawa, and Mrs. Leete and daughter Lenore.

Small tables had been placed up stairs where the guests were served with a delicious luncheon by the following young girls who looked exceedingly charming and pretty: Edna Burton, Harriet McCoy, Bessie Reichelderfer, Lenore Vail, Gertrude Finley, Marie Stahl, Carrie Cross, Madge Vail and Nellie Leete. The table was tastefully decorated with smilax and cut flowers.

They served the following menu:

Sandwiches, Mushroom Patties, Chicken Salad, Olives, Angel Food, Almond Cream, Salted Almonds, Coffee.

A pink carnation, as a souvenir, was given each guest at the table. It was a delightful party and Mrs. Leete and her daughter were most charming hostesses.

Mrs. James B. Townsend, at her home on west Market street, last Thursday afternoon pleasantly entertained a large circle of friends in honor of her guest, Mrs. Morton, of Columbus. One hundred beautifully hand painted invitations had been issued, which stated that the guests would be entertained by "An Hour with Tennyson." In the upper left-hand corner of the invitation was a pretty violet, below which was the written program. Mesdames Balliet and Brice were the ladies who so charmingly rendered the numbers of the program. The recitations of Mrs. Brice were greatly appreciated, and the singing of Mrs. Balliet was intensely enjoyed, especially the "Song from the Princess." This was the program:

Where is Another Sweet as My Sweet? Mrs. Balliet
The Selection of Hand... Mrs. Brice
Candle Song... Mrs. Balliet
Singing from Gipsy... Mrs. Brice
Song from the Princess... Mrs. Balliet
The Stepping Beauty... Mrs. Brice (accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Ackers-mao).

After the program a delicate lunch was served. The house was beautifully decorated with sweet summer flowers and smilax.

The handsomely furnished parlors of the Lima Club were thrown open last evening by the members of the club to their many friends and all who were present were made more than happy by the evening's entertainment and by the unique place that had been prepared for their entertainment. As the guests arrived they were directed to the roof garden over the Exchange bank and to the rear of the club house. It was there that the fore part of the evening was spent to the great delight of every one. Over the roof were strung Chinese lanterns. The evening was pleasant, the atmosphere was not too warm and the moon with a full round face looked down from an absolutely clear sky. These conditions alone pleased the fancies of every one, but it was the sweet strains of music from Fry's orchestra that added so greatly to the charms of the evening. A delicate lunch was served on the roof, after which the guests repaired to the parlors where they were entertained by the exquisite playing of Frank Griffin upon the violin and Prof. Clint Richmond upon the piano. Later in the evening the orchestra called the younger members of the party to the office of Dr. Baxter, which had been cleared for dancing. It was a late hour when the guests departed, satisfied that the Lima Club had most handsomely entertained in their elegant home.

About twenty-five young people of Lima, together with Mrs. B. L. Bates, Mrs. Walter C. Standish and Rev. Crawford, plied yesterday at McBeth's lake. The young ladies of the party had prepared a lunch which in the early evening was served. An enjoyable time was had in sailing and other sports. The party returned to Lima at early twilight.

Misses Anna Armstrong, Stella Craig, Bessie Morris, Alice Morris, Jennie Morris, and Messrs. W. C. De-weese, Ben Thomas, Elmer Hay, D. D. Morris and Will Bell went to McBeth's lake, last evening, with baskets well filled with things pleasing to the appetite, and enjoyed a moonlight picnic.

The McKinley Sewing Circle, composed of the following little ladies, Bessie Callahan, Margaret Finley, Carrie Collins, Bessie Shaffer and Breta Gorman, were entertained in a delightful manner this afternoon by Mrs. P. H. Mahle, of north Elizabeth street.

Mrs. J. F. Brotherton entertained a number of friends at cards this afternoon.

Miss Carrie Cross will entertain her friends next Monday evening at her home on south Elizabeth street.

STREET TALK.

A dispatch from North Baltimore to the Toledo Blade says: The widow of the late Jesse M. Baker, the murdered night policeman at North Baltimore, is a member of a very unlucky family.

Mrs. Baker's name was Archer and most of her male relatives have been killed in some more or less violent manner. One brother was killed by a B. & O. train at Fostoria, another on the C. & D. at Deshler, another got into a saloon row and was carried up the same alley in which Baker followed the thieves to the railroad, where he was laid across the track and killed. Another was shot and an adopted son was thrown from a T. & O. C. train and killed.

About 12:35 o'clock to day the central fire department was called out by an alarm from box 24 at Wayne and Jackson streets. A spark from an engine set fire to the roof of one Mayo's coal sheds but the fire was extinguished before much damage was done.

Father Manning has written and will have published, ready for delivery on July 2nd, the story of the growth of Catholicity in Lima, and history of the church of St. Rose with biographical sketch of its pastors, (1830 to 1896) illustrated with twenty photo gravures. It will be sold by subscription only.

SAD ACCIDENT.

A Seven-Year Old Boy Attempts to Board a Moving Train.

He is Thrown Under the Train and Loses His Right Leg—The Son of Michael Sullivan of North Jefferson Street.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock little Michael Sullivan met with an unfortunate accident which will make the little fellow a cripple and handicap him in many ways during his whole life.

He left home in the afternoon in company with a crowd of small boys and they were spending the afternoon playing up along the Lake Erie railroad tracks. He had frequently been warned by his parents to be careful of the cars and to refrain from jumping on to them, but he failed to take his father's advice and is now the sufferer. The boys had been playing around the old reservoir situated near the upper C. H. & D. yards in the space between the Lake Erie and C. H. & D. tracks. The Ohio Southern during the day had brought up several cars of coke and had switched them on the "Y" connecting the Lake Erie with the Lima Northern. A switch engine of the Lake Erie went up to the "Y" to make up a coke train. When the boys saw the train they left the pond and for a change of amusement they were attempting to jump onto the train. Little Michael in attempting to catch the iron on the car was drawn or thrown under the cars and seriously injured.

His right leg fell across the rail, and in an instant the car wheels were passing over it, just below the knee joint. His cries attracted his companions and also Timothy Conners, a man who was close by at the time. Mr. Conners hastened to the scene of the accident and was told that the boy lived at 1006 north Jefferson street, or about four squares from where they were. He picked the child up and carried him to his home. His mother, when she saw her boy, was almost prostrated from the shock. His father was notified and Dr. Terwilliger summoned. The little fellow had suffered a loss of considerable blood and was very weak. An amputation of the limb above the knee was considered necessary as the knee was badly crushed. Drs. Murphy and Weadock assisted in performing the operation.

The little fellow is 7 years old and is the son of Michael Sullivan, who is employed as a flagman at the C. H. & D. and Lake Erie crossing on North street. The doctor reports the boy as doing as well this morning as could be expected.

Y. M. C. A. Teachers' Meeting.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION.

Seventy Children will be Received at St. Rose Church To-Morrow.

Seventy children of the church of St. Rose will to-morrow morning receive their First Holy Communion. For three months Father Manning has been engaged in preparing them. Father Brady and Andrew Kenny, O. P., of Cincinnati, have assisted during the past two days. They will meet in the basement of St. Rose school, at 7:30 a. m., and escorted by the Uniformed Rank Knights of St. John will go in procession to the church. After mass the first communicants will breakfast with their pastor, and will attend the 11 o'clock mass in thanksgiving for what they have received. At 3 p. m. they will renew their Baptismal Vows, the boys will be received into the St. Aloysius Sodality, and the girls into the Sodality of the Children of Mary. The church is beautifully decorated with flowers and potted plants for the occasion, and the day will be a memorable one in the history of the church.
